

STRING/GUITAR SOLO & ENSEMBLE - HOST GUIDELINES – UIL REGION 25 MUSIC

1. I will bring the Adjudication Forms and room packets for judges and monitors the day of the contest.
2. Please email me as far in advance of contest as possible, site information letter, directions and map to school, map of the school layout, bus parking, warmup area, etc., to the following:
 - A. Judges
 - B. Executive Secretary - Randy Bartlett – I will forward all information and documents to the Directors!
 Please include a highlighted note to directors to remind students to mark name of the school on their music to help us ensure accurate return of music to school.*
3. Rental/tuning of pianos.
I have reserved digital pianos from “Romeo Music”, Renee Tarczon (972-342-6892), renee@romeomusic.net. Contact her directly to arrange delivery and pick up times.
4. Arrange for adequate number of music stands for all rooms needed.
5. Advise participating schools/directors of any equipment that you will be providing.
6. Try to secure a repairman from one of the local music companies to be available for emergency repairs.
7. Post signs indicating locations of warm-up area, contest office, and performance rooms. Ratings will not be posted at the contest site. Instead, I will provide participating directors a direct link for students to view their ratings.
8. Provide a couple of student workers to help throughout the day in contest office; adequate student monitors for performance rooms; runners to bring rating sheets to the contest office.
9. Make sure the contest office is set up and ready at least 45 minutes before the beginning of the contest. A work table (at least one large or two small, countertops, etc.) and adequate lighting are needed. Make sure school doors are unlocked so contest officials can get into the building early if needed. If possible, put the Contest Office in the Library or other large room with tables and chairs so directors can have access to the adjudication sheets.
10. Contest office must have two computers with internet access and a connection to a printer. (Make sure that your school does not shut down internet access on Saturday!) It is helpful to have a copier in or close to the contest office.
11. UIL will pay for morning donuts/bagels, snacks, coffee, water, drinks, for judges, contest officials, repairman, and participating directors, and “gift baskets” for judges, etc. Receipts must be attached to your expense voucher. Maximum reimbursement for these expenses will be (1-8 judges - Not to exceed more than $150 per day) – (9-16 judges - Not to exceed more than $200 per day) (16-28 judges - Not to exceed more than $250 per day) (29 or more judges - Not to exceed more than $300 per day)
12. Arrange for lunch ($15 maximum amount allowable per person for lunch reimbursement for Judges, UIL officials, and Contest Hosts - UIL Contest Administrator is not responsible for making coffee or other “hospitality” duties.
 Examples of expenses UIL will pay: Primary Host honorarium. Contests that require five or more judges, a designated contest host assistant may also receive an honorarium; snacks and meals for judges, contest officials and host directors; digital piano rental.
 Examples of expenses UIL will not pay: Food/drinks for student workers or parent volunteers.
12. I will bring the medals the morning of the contest. I will have rating sheet folders for each school so there is no
13. Coordinate with your administration the events of the day. Coordinate with any other events that might also be happening on host campus the day of the contest.
14. Shortly after the entry deadline date and when I have all of the entries finalized, I will send you the judge contact information and other information that has been compiled to assist you as you prepare to host a UIL contest at your school. Once you have sent me the room assignments for the contest, I will add the judge’s assignments to each room and finalize the schedule to email the directors and post on the website.

Your willingness to take on this responsibility is very much appreciated. Please let me know if I can help – you may call or email me anytime if you have questions.
